MAY DAY 2009

MARCH FOR WORKER & IMMIGRANT RIGHTS! FRI. MAY 1ST 2009

UNION SQUARE (14TH STREET & BROADWAY) NY, NY
RALLY @ 4PM MARCH @ 5PM

May 1st 2009 is the first 100 days of President Barack Obama's administration.

It is crucial that everyone—immigrants, trade unionists, young people, the unemployed, the foreclosed, all progressive forces—come out to demonstrate on May Day.

Since 2006 immigrants and their supporters have marched on May Day to demand humane immigration reform, legalization and an end to the raids and deportations.

Today, as the economic crisis deepens, workers must not only continue to fight for these demands, we must also fight for jobs and housing for all. The economic problems we face must result in a movement for all our rights, not divisions or social tensions.

We must all come together—documented and undocumented, Black, Latino, Asian, Arab, Native American and white—and fight for our rights.

Come out on May 1st 2009 and March for Worker & Immigrant Rights!

The May 1st Coalition Demands:

- End the raids & deportations
- Humane & Just Immigration Reform
- Pass the Employee Free Choice Act
- Abolish NAFTA and all Free Trade Agreements
- No militarization of the border
- Jobs for all at Union Wages
- Stop tuition hikes
- Housing for all, no more foreclosures
- Bail out the People, Not the Banks or Corporations
- Stop Police Brutality, No more Racist attacks
- Stop Dividing Families Everywhere. Defend Katrina Survivors Right to Return
- Money for people, not war, prisons or ICE detentions
